Re: Pat De Sisto,

After many decades of being an icon in the Motorcycle Industry Pat De Sisto has decided to retire. At Cycle Pro this this comes with mixed emotions. Pat has been an amazing asset and has taught us so much and will be dearly missed, but his retirement has been well deserved. Pat will continue on as a consultant. But please for now any records in your system should be changed to the information found below. Thom Mendola will be personally handling all of Pats normal responsibilities going forward. Any orders, Questions or concerns should be sent to Thom

I would like to ask you all in joining me to wish Pat a long and happy retirement.
